

Skagit River Resort at Bullerville presents a

House Concert

featuring

Larry Green

“THE LONER” is a one man show featuring Larry Green on guitar, harmonica and vocals performing the acoustic songs of musical genius NEIL YOUNG. Green has been doing his Neil Young Tribute for many years and has toured all over the world. Even playing as far away as Indonesia, The Loner is always true to the studio recorded versions of all of Mr. Young’s songs. Great attention to detail and authenticity is always the main focus of his shows. The Loner features the between-songs banter, the exact tunings used by Young and even the acoustic stage set (right down to the same oriental rug) seen at Young’s concerts. The Loner has had an Eagles Tribute band open for him on tour and has opened for such artists as Pat Boone, Nicolette Larson and Tom Waits. According to the Seattle Times:

“There are several Neil Young tribute bands and solo artists that play Young’s songs very well. No one sounds as close to the master, however, as The Loner as evidenced in his live concerts.....”
