House Concert

featuring

Mockingbird

Robin Wallbridge — Sherrie Lutsch — Lesley Rigg

Mockingbird is an a cappella trio based in Deming in Whatcom County that has been delighting audiences throughout the Pacific Northwest for over eight years. Brewing their own songs, both humorous and heartfelt, about daily life (motherhood, coffee, rain, relatives and love), they also sing messages about tolerance, unity, and peace.

On their visit with us last June, we wished more of our guests and friends could hear the wonderful harmonies of these three ladies, and this second appearance is that opportunity. Not to be missed!

Admit it: we're all suckers for a cappella. Creativity with the unaccompanied voice is the purest expression, and moves and touches things deep within us. Perhaps for that reason a cappella performances are, more than most genres, best enjoyed live. The harmonies are beautiful but edgy rather than lush, and the arrangements keep the music moving by changing tempos and spotlighting different members, not through startling interjections and technoscat. —Tom Petersen review of We3, Victory Review, September 2004

Mockingbird is an a cappella trio featuring three women with great voices. Their selection of songs varies widely, a good mix of entertainment and message, from doo-wop to Cherokee melody. These women are obviously having fun. You can hear their warmth and friendship. —Jeanette Housner review of Drenched, Victory Review, October 2000
