

Skagit River Resort at Bullerville presents a

HOUSE CONCERT

featuring

Kahala Halau

Based in the beautiful Skagit Valley, Kahala Halau has portrayed the grace and beauty of Polynesian dance at venues throughout the Pacific Northwest since 1977. Troupe members come from many different backgrounds and have become `ohana (family), with shared love and respect for the Polynesian people, their cultures, and each other. The halau strives to perpetuate this through the arts of dance, music, and crafts, and we welcome all who wish to learn and share. Professional performances, like this house concert, feature dances from Hawai`i, Samoa, New Zealand, and Tahiti. They also offer group and private lessons in both the Bellingham and Mount Vernon areas. The troupe has visited us twice before, and we have so much fun when they're here. If the weather holds, we'll have an evening outdoor performance on the patio, if not then it's inside in the Lodge.
